The coin's theme pays homage to sports legend Jim Thorpe. The 2018 reverse design depicts Jim Thorpe, with the foreground elements highlighting his football and Olympic achievements. 2. Your first look at the Treasury secretary's signature on new notes, November 28, 2017 by Coin World. Story Summary: Steven T. Mnuchin prints his signature rather than using cursive, improving legibility. The first Series 2017 $1 Federal Reserve notes with the signatures of the new Treasury secretary, Steven T. Mnuchin, and new United States Treasurer Jovita Carranza were unveiled at the Bureau of Engraving and Printing on Nov. 15. The debut of the note was widely covered on the Internet, cable news, and social media, mainly owing to a series of photos showing the secretary and his wife holding a 50-subject sheet of Atlanta district star notes.
