

NORTHSIDE COIN CLUB NEWSLETTER

March 2010 Issue

The monthly Northside Coin Club meeting will be held on Thursday March 4th, 2010 at 7 PM (doors open at 6:30) at the Cimarron Village Community Building in Broomfield, see our web site www.northsidecoinclub.org for directions. The program for this month is scheduled to be “The Private coinage of Joseph Leshner” give by one time NSCC member Chris Marchase.

SNACKS – Don F. has volunteered to bring snacks in March.

COIN of the MONTH – Winged Liberty (Mercury) dime. (A nice, no problems, coin that you, as a collector, would like to have, would be appreciated).

[The “Coin of the Month” works as follows. Bring one coin, of the type described as the featured coin of the month, preferably in a 2x2 or flip. If you bring a coin, you will get a ticket in the drawing and your coin goes into the pot. We then draw one ticket and the winner gets the entire pot of coins that were featured.

COIN QUIZ – We will be having a quiz on Mercury dimes, so study up.

DUES are OVERDUE!

Your dues for 2010 are way past due. Dues are $12 for Adult members and $1 for Junior members. You can bring your check (made out to “Northside Coin Club”) or cash to the March meeting or mail your check to NSCC PO Box 1837 Broomfield, CO 80038-1837.

Last month's meeting was held on February 4th. We had 25 members signed in on the attendance sheet, along with one guest, John Kane. Please remember to sign in when you arrive and put your chip in the can for the door prize drawing.

MINUTES – New President Dave F. called the meeting to order at 7:10 pm.

Dave thanked everyone for their support of the elections.

Dave thanked outgoing President Tim Z. for all of his work over the last 5 years.

There were no upcoming coin shows for February.

Dave gave a quick report on the New York International Coin show he attended in January.

A motion was made and seconded to approve the minutes of the last meeting.

Michael T. gave the Treasurers report and stated we have $1090.96 in the club account. A motion was made and seconded to approve the Treasurers report. (Remember that any adult member may see the complete Treasurer's report by simply requesting to view it at the meeting.)

Old Business

Dave F. indicated that the collection sale had been postponed for a few months.

New Business

None

SHOW & TELL

Dave F. showed a few items he obtained at the NY International Coin show. A 1733 Austrian Thaler, a 1735 Groschen, and a 1724 Ducat for the Netherlands.

Don K. had a 1907 stock certificate that was from the Lee Comstock Mining Company in Nevada, along with an original brochure that was used to try to sell the stock certificates.

Tim Z. brought in some Chinese counterfeit coins. These coins were counterfeits of coins from China and not of US coins.

COIN QUIZ

There was no quiz in February.

PROGRAM – Dan Carr gave a presentation on his Moonlight Mint. Dan designed the New York and Rhode Island state quarters. His presentation was the story of how he obtained an actual coin press that was previously used at the Denver Mint. He had a pictorial history of the press and the condition it was in when he obtained it and a step by step of how he restored it to operational condition. He had picture of various blank planchets he found in various crevices in the press. He told of how he created his own die and used all the blank planchets to mint special tokens commemorating his operational press. Dan also showed pictures of a 1964-D Peace dollar he made with the press. He made his own die and then used a actual Peace dollar to strike his 64 Peace dollar.

The “Coin of the Month”. Buffalo nickels were the Coin of the Month. Michael E. won a pot of 6 Buffalo coins.

Door prizes and Raffle winners were;

The Door prize: A George Washington Proof Commemorative Half was won by Don F.

The Raffle prize: A 1943 Mercury dime slabbed MS65 by NGC was won by Tim Z.

No Auction was held following the meeting.

If you would like to bring snacks, just sign up on the attendance sheet for the month you would like to bring them.

No one has signed up yet to bring snacks for the April 2010 meeting, or any other future meetings.
