Upcoming Meeting Announcement

We will be holding a virtual Zoom meeting October 13th at 7:00pm.

Due to COVID-19 restrictions, we are still unable to hold in person meetings at the Cross of Christ Lutheran Church in Broomfield. Our club officers have decided to hold virtual Zoom meetings at our normal 7:00 pm time until such time as we can again meet in person.

You may not be familiar with this Zoom video conferencing software. A link has been included in this notice below to allow you to participate. You just need to click on the link to join the meeting. If you have never used Zoom before, it will be installed on your computer the first time you click on a Zoom meeting invitation.

If you have any questions about these virtual Zoom NSCC meetings, you may email Bob at rtcarrjr@gmail.com or you may call or text him at 970-290-0262. Bob has used Zoom on his desktop computer, laptop computer, iPad, and iPhone and it works well. It works best if you have a camera on the computer or other device you are using, but you can participate in a Zoom meeting without one. People will just be able to hear you and not see you if you don't have a camera.

If you would like to attend the scheduled NSCC meeting on Tuesday, October 13th, just click on the link below:

The program in September was “Leshner Referendum Dollars in Colorado” given by NSCC Member John B. John gave some history on Joseph Leshner and how these Silver “Dollars” came to be. They were intended to promote the use of Silver, and attempt to raise the price of silver, mined in the Cripple Creek/Victor area, by the local merchants and residents as a type of trade token. They were produced around 1900-1901. John also discussed the various varieties that came to exist. John indicated a good book on the subject is “Forgotten Colorado Silver Coins” by Andna G, Wilde Jr., Kenneth Hallenbeck, and Robert D. Leonard Jr.

News Items

1. Market Analysis: Magnificent error coins bring big money, Coin World, September 10, 2020. Story Summary: Among the spectacular errors traded in August at the big auctions by Heritage and Stack's Bowers Galleries was an 1891 Seated Liberty quarter dollar that was dramatically double struck, with the second strike 50 percent off center. It was graded Mint State 62 by Numismatic Guaranty Corp. The coin rotated 90 degrees clockwise between strikes. No planchet was fed between strikes, thus both sides show the dramatic widely off-center second strike. Both dates are clearly visible, and the result is a impressive double-strike error from the Philadelphia Mint that is rarely seen on this 19th century type. Heritage found no direct comparables in its research of errors on Seated Liberty quarter dollar.

2. Colorization contract suggests possibility of additional colorful coins, medals, Coin World, August 21, 2020. Terms of the contract the U.S. Mint awarded LulaRose on Oct. 9, 2019, to colorize Proof 2020 Basketball Hall of Fame silver dollars and clad half dollars suggest the Mint is seeking to extend the colorization technology to multiple other series options, including gold coins, and silver and bronze medals. The United States Mint may have multiple coin programs per calendar year that could require colorization, from one to five, according to the contract. The contract also addresses the capability of colorizing coins struck on square planchets. The U.S. Mint has never produced a coin on a square planchet. The base contract is for a one-year period, ending Sept. 30, 2020, with the possibility of the Mint exercising up to four one-year contract extensions, running through Sept. 30, 2024.

3. Whitman Publishing releases Expanded 4th Edition of Cash In Your Coins: Selling the Rare Coins You've Inherited, Coin Update, October 2, 2020. This book tells readers who have inherited a numismatic collection how rare their coins are, how to value them, and how to sell or donate if they decide to liquidate all or part of an estate. Author Beth Deisher, an award-winning journalist and retired editor of Coin World, draws on more than 35 years of experience helping people understand and collect coins, paper currency, medals, and tokens. The revised fourth edition has 32 more pages than the third edition. New features include an in-depth illustrated chapter on the increasingly deceptive counterfeit coins emerging from China.

Interesting Coin Facts

The Mints' production during its' first year was 145,846 coins in Half Cents and Cents to be used in circulation. Today the Mint produces over 12 billion coins for circulation. This consists of cents, nickels, dimes, and quarters and does not even include the half dollar and dollar coins which some feel do not really "circulate".
